

Some Other Selected Awards in 2006-2007 School year:

□ 1st Place Individual in Math Counts Houston Region

Ding Zhou, the first place individual in MathCounts Greater Houston Chapter

Angelica Macro, Grand Award Winner in HSEF

□ Grand award in Houston Science And Engineering Fair

□ 2nd Place in National Chess Tournament

□ 2 Young Scientist Award Nomination by Discovery Channel

□ 2nd place in Texas Science and Engineering Fair

HSE students participated in the Exxon Mobile Statewide Engineering and Science Fair that took place in San Antonio. Nicholas Gonzales received the 2nd Place Award in the category of Medicine and Health and two Special Awards from the US Navy and The Discovery Channel.

Angelica McCarron got a Special Award from the US Navy.

❑ Outstanding SAT Performance

7th Grade students Sarah Zhao, Angelica McCarron, Leelund Swanson, and Ding Zhou took the SAT as a part of DUKE University TIP Program. It is considered a great honor and sign of academic achievement to receive an invitation to take this exam as a 7th grade student. Two of the students, Ding Zhou and Leelund Swanson received scores that resulted in an invitation to the Grand Recognition Ceremony at DUKE University. Three of the students, Angelica McCarron, Ding Zhou, and Leelund Swanson qualified for the Academy for Summer Studies conducted at one of the state universities in Texas.

❑ 2nd place in Odyssey of the Mind Division

HSE Odyssey of The Mind Division I Team received 2nd place among 24 teams in the Houston Regional competition.

❑ HSE CHESS TEAM RECEIVES 5TH PLACE

The HSE Chess team earned a 5th place trophy in the Texas Grade and Collegiate Champs Chess Tournament. The tournament took place in the Woodlands on November 17th and 18th, 2007. Team members included Daniel Ng, Tejaswi Udipi, Ashish Wadhvani, Ajish Wadhvani, and Gary Zhang. These young men have worked very hard under the direction and instruction of their coach, John Hendrick.

HSE Chess Team

❑ Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Art Contest

On behalf of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo and Harmony School of Excellence's Fine Arts Department, we would like to thank all the students who participated in submitting their beautiful artwork for the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Art Contest. Among the eight pieces of artwork chosen to represent Harmony School of Excellence, one finalist received a first place blue ribbon, two finalists received second place red ribbons, and five finalists received third place white ribbons